A Strong Argument for Joseph.

The following letter from the chairman of the committee on territories shows very clearly the position which Delegate Joseph occupies in relation to the statehood question. With Joseph we will get statehood, with Catron we will not get it:

CEDAR HILL, TEX., Oct. 16, 1902.

J. H. Catron, Esq., Chairman Dem. T. C. C.

Dear Sir:—I have been watching with great interest the light going on in the Territory of New Mexico for Delegate Joseph.

As I am not a resident or voter of your Territory some might think advice from me out of place, but as I have been for four years in congress a most earnest and persistent advocate of the immediate and unconditional admission of New Mexico to statehood, I thought I would write you a few lines and say that in my judgment statehood for New Mexico could be given no more final blow or one calculated to do the cause greater injury than by a failure to re-elect Mr. Joseph a Delegate to the 58th congress.

Mr. Joseph has the confidence, respect and esteem of democrats and republicans alike in both the house and senate in a marked degree. If he should be re-elected, I believe we can get a bill through the senate at the next session which will be agreed to by the house.

Should Mr. Catron be elected I have grave doubts if anything could be done for New Mexico for the next three years. It is not necessary for me to state specifically why in my judgment Mr. Catron should not be elected. He is known thoroughly by your people and he is equally well known and understood in Washington city by those who have always been the friends of the Territory of New Mexico.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH E. WASHINGTON,

Chairman Comm. on the Territories.

THE SENTINEL makes the statement that Mr. Young did not swear to the statements of the First National Bank of this city.

THE SENTINEL is correct, and the Enterprise has done Mr. Young an injustice by basing its comment upon the report of the grand jury.

The directors do not swear to the reports of national banks. They merely attest to the correctness of the reports.—Enterprise.

The charges of the Enterprise that Mr. Young swore to false statements are withdrawn. The Enterprise even acknowledges that the democrats are not running a perjurer for the office of probate clerk! Vote for E. M. Young for probate clerk.

THE ballots cast at this election in New Mexico will not be numbered by the judges, and when the count is finished the poll books will be placed in the ballot boxes and the ballot boxes will be sealed.

Under the old law all the ballots were numbered and the poll books were returned outside the ballot boxes.

THE Enterprise attempted to poke a little fun at George W. Miles because he stated that he could tell the difference between the report of a 44 and 45 caliber gun. Perhaps the sporting editor of the Enterprise is not aware of the fact that the charge of powder in a 45 caliber cartridge is 50 per cent. heavier than the charge in a 44 caliber cartridge. Perhaps the editors of the Enterprise would not be able to distinguish between the report of a pistol and a twelve-pounder.

The production of coal in this Territory, at the present time, is not equal to the demand. Consumers in this County are unable to get coal for immediate use.

Dr. Kimball has bought out Dr. J. W. Williams and is now occupying the office formerly occupied by Dr. Williams, on the southeast corner of Main street and Broadway. Dr. Williams has gone east.

Indians on the Warpath.

Two Mexican officers were killed by Indians in Mexico last week. The Indians were in ambush along the border and both officers were shot through the head before they even suspected the presence of Indians. The troops were demoralized and the Indians escaped into the mountains before the soldiers rallied. It is supposed that the Indians who did the killing were members of "Kid's" band. More troops have been ordered from Chihuahua and it is hoped that the Indians will be captured.

The following telegram was received by Mayor Fleming yesterday morning:

Duncan, A. T., Nov. 7, 1902.

To J. W. Fleming:

Indians passed here at daybreak yesterday. Cow boys now after them.

L. A. SHELLEY.

This is probably the same band that killed the Mexican officers last week. It is possible that there will be a serious outbreak of Apaches from the San Carlos reservation.

Personal.

Judge Bantz was at Deming last week.

J. D. Warren was at Deming last week.

Ed Elrags was in from the Mangas last Sunday.

J. D. Burch was in from the Gila last Friday.

Mrs. W. C. Porterfield has gone to California on a visit.

Miss Lou Conway returned from a visit to California last week.

Miss Julia Stine, of El Paso, is visiting Mrs. Muse.

L. A. Shelly went out to the western part of the County last Friday.

J. H. Webster was in from Central last Wednesday.

M. H. Twomey was in from Black Hawk last week.

Israel King went down to his ranch yesterday.

Mrs. Frank Thurmond, of Deming, was in the city last week.

J. H. Bragaw was over from Georgetown last Thursday.

Birdie Walker, who has been visiting here several months, left for her home in Los Angeles last week.

Roadmaster Belton of the A. T. S. F. was in the city last week.

Perry B. Lady was down to Deming last week.

Robert Redding was over from Lone Mountain last week getting pointers on the political situation.

Prof. Theilman, republican candidate for superintendent of schools, was in the city last Friday.

B. Williams, formerly agent for the Singer Manufacturing Company, at this place, was in the city last week. His agency headquarters are now at Las Cruces.

J. W. Fleming was looking after the interests of the democratic ticket in the southern part of the County last week.

John Brookman has moved into the residence which he purchased some time ago of D. Abraham. It is one of the finest residences in the southwest.

Thomas Lyons and John A. Moses went out to the White House last Sunday. They took along some electioneering material.

Mrs. Pranger and son are here on a visit to Mrs. Nichol. Mrs. Pranger is the mother of Mrs. Nichol.

Charles P. Rosecrans returned from Boston last Saturday afternoon in time to give his assistance toward bringing about a grand democratic victory today.

J. M. Wright went to Deming last week to see about the situation in that part of the vineyard. Things are not very satisfactory to the republicans down there.

E. M. Young was at Deming last week looking over the situation. He returned well satisfied with the trip.

George H. Uter has returned from a trip to the northern part of the Territory.

Baylor Shannon, democratic candidate for County commissioner from this district, was in the city yesterday.

Mining and Milling.

The fifth assessment of one half of one per cent. has been made on the capital stock of the Manhattan Gold Mining and Milling Company. The assessment is payable on or before November 15th, and is made to cover the extra expense of assessment work, taxes and insurance for 1902.

A large bar of bullion was received at the Silver City National Bank last week from the Maud S. mill at Silver Creek. The Mogollon district has been producing very little bullion during the past four or five months, but from this time on the district is expected to be a large producer of gold and silver bullion.

Another big strike was made in the Surprise mine at Cook's Peak last week. It is said to be the biggest strike yet made in the district. A cave was broken into which is 600 ft. long with ore the entire length of it. The ore runs 60 per cent. lead and 8 ounces in silver per ton. Cook's is the best camp in New Mexico and the production of the mines there is increasing rapidly. The strikes which have been made there this year indicate that the mountains are full of caves of rich mineral.

THE METAL MARKET.

There has been little change in the price of silver during the past week and a decline in price is looked for. Silver closed at 85 1/2.

Copper has remained steady with a slight tendency toward a reaction. The closing price in New York was 11.65.

There has been no improvement in the price of lead although the sales for the past week were considerably heavier than usual. Closing price, 3.50.

Saloons Must Close.

Heretofore saloons have been allowed to open as soon as the polls were closed on election day, but the new law provides that "every liquor dealer shall close his place of business and not sell or allow to be sold, give away or allow to be given away, any intoxicating liquors from his said place of business, from the hour of twelve o'clock, midnight, last before the day of any general election, until the hour of twelve o'clock, midnight, upon such day of election, and shall keep his said place of business closed between said hours, and any such liquor dealer, his or her agent, violating the provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than twenty-five nor more than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned for not less than twenty days nor more than one year, in the discretion of the court."

The first dividend of twenty per cent will be paid to the creditors of the First National Bank in a few days. The checks have been sent to Washington for the signature of the comptroller of the currency.

Music Recital by Mrs. Davenport and Her Pupils.

The numbers which will be presented at the recital at Morrill Hall, Friday evening, November 11th, will be of a high order of artistic and beautiful music, the desire being to create a new interest in the study of good music. The older workers in this study are doing good and faithful practice and will bring their performance up to a high standard. Enough popular and humorous numbers have been prepared to chain the attention and furnish entertainment to those of the public who may not be especially interested in the education of young artists:

PROGRAMME.

1. Quartet—"Last Night." Karleff, Mrs. Davenport, Mr. Wallace, Elmore.

2. Duet—"March from Tannhauser." Wagner, Alexander, Mr. Hickey.

3. Vocal Solo—"Ere Was I." Ardita, Mrs. Davenport.

4. Reading—"Scenes from the Life and Shadow of Scotty Lee." Aaron, Mrs. Davenport.

5. Vocal Solo—"Swedish Love Song." Mrs. Davenport.

MANGAS SPRINGS, N. M., Oct. 31, '02.

BIRDIE WALKER, Editor.

I wish you would give our weak hearted democratic brethren a slap on the wool question—make a calculation for them. Two years ago I sold wool at 16 1/2 cents per pound; this year it will not bring over 12 cents; last spring I got 12 cents. We have now ready for market about 6,000 pounds. Figure out how much we make by protection, and then see what duty we have to pay on blankets and all other woolen goods. We are six in family, and twenty dollars a year is a low estimate for each person annually. After you have figured out how much we have cleared by protection, run the calculation on and see how much the 60,000,000 people are benefited by protection on wool, and then ask how many poor widows and orphans sleep cold on account of woolen goods being so high, and all because of the tariff on woolen goods. Respectfully yours,

JAS. K. METCALFE.

Col. D. A. Martin has moved into the Posey residence.

The district court for this County will open here next Monday.

There will be a masquerade ball at the skating rink next Tuesday evening.

Down "To the wife of Harry Booth, of Fort Bayard, last Saturday, a daughter.

The polling place in this precinct is at the Broadway Hotel building, corner Broadway and Texas streets.

A dance was given at Morrill Hall last Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Birdie Walker.

Walter C. Hadley, who is considered a pretty well posted man for a republican, is advising his friends not to bet on Catron.

There has been rain enough for the past ten days to keep the ground moist, but the rains now are doing the stock men very little good.

G. D. Bantz has moved his law office to the Sheridan building, corner of Broadway and Main street.

Miss Clara Green pleasantly entertained a number of her young friends with a "luffy" last Friday evening; the event being in observance of that genial lady's fifteenth birthday.

Carson and Fritter have made some alterations in their saloon on the corner of Broadway and Main streets. The rooms formerly occupied by G. D. Bantz as a law office have been fitted up for club rooms and other improvements have been made.

W. A. Lucas has opened a meat market in the building formerly occupied by Fleming & Rosecrans on Bullard street. He will remove soon to the building formerly occupied by the Vienna bakery.

The new heating apparatus for the public school building at Deming has not yet arrived and the school was closed last week in consequence. It is thought that the school will not remain closed long on this account.

The meeting called to consider the World's Fair project adjourned to next Saturday at 3 p. m. All ladies of Silver City urgently requested to attend at Commercial Club Rooms (Southern Hotel).

It is reported that a number of illegal voters have been registered in San Juan precinct. One of these was recently released from a penitentiary in Mexico. The democratic member of the board of registration objected to the registration of these men, but he was opposed by the republicans on the board, one of whom, at least, it is said, was aware of the fact that illegal voters were being registered. The penalty for illegal voting is heavy.

Masks for masquerade ball may be had at Porterfield's. Go and make your selection. Tickets to ball 75 cents each per person. Unmasking at 12 o'clock. 45-11

By order of the city council I am building a city pound near Martin Mahers residence, and will begin to impound all stock found roaming at large in city limits. If you miss any of your stock you will likely find them in the pound and by paying cost, damages, etc., you can get them.

CATRON'S RECORD.

For the General Good of the People of New Mexico.

During the 25 years past in which he has been either a public servant or a conspicuous influence in public affairs, is as follows:

and successful contradiction is challenged in emphatic terms.

Let some one of his defenders point to a single public act of his that marks him as a patriot and profitable public servant of the people—an act that will fill up one line of the above blank.

While waiting for something from his friends with which to fill up this yawning gap in his public record, or even to reduce its size by a line or two, let us go on with his record as he himself has written it.

As United States District Attorney for about six years, in the seventies, his administration of the affairs of that office was characterized by such abuses of his official powers and duties as resulted in investigation by the Department of Justice of the administration under which he was holding the office, the result of which was one of the severest reprimands ever issued to a public officer.

His legislative record, written principally while he was occupying stolen seats, is of a piece with that made while he was United States Attorney, for New Mexico and the popular report thereon, even in his own party, as voiced in unmeasured terms in the past by the leading republican newspapers of the Territory, such as the Citizen, the Optic, the Enterprise and the Range, is full as severe as the report against him as a U. S. official. These and the other republican newspapers can now find no single act of his in his extended legislative career to which they can point as an earnest act of what he would accomplish if elevated to a seat in the National Legislature.

But they can find plenty of vicious legislation of which the records fasten the paternity of patronage upon him such as:

"An Act familiarly known as 'the Supreme Court Practice Act,' which should have been called 'An Act for the relief of the clients of T. B. Catron and to legislate their cases into court.'"

"An Act to limit the time within which certain suits may be brought," etc., familiarly known as the "limitation bill," which should have been called "An Act to enable land-grabbers to gobble up Spanish and Mexican land-grants and oust the small holders and settlers thereon."

"An Act to punish false personation," which should have been called "An Act to intimidate the Governor of New Mexico and reconstruct, by the purr of the territorial legislature, our governmental structure by wiping out the co-ordinated executive branch"—the most monstrous as well as supremely ridiculous piece of legislation ever attempted on this old earth of ours.

"An Act in relation to change of venue," which should have been called "An Act to enable the Maxwell Land Grant Company to drag all the settlers on that grant into the courts of other countries and thus worry and weary them in submission and settlement, and for other like uses by other land-grabbers."

"An Act relative to imprisonment of persons charged with crime," which should have been called "An Act to turn loose the jailed murders of Dumas Prisoner."

"An Act to define the offense of libel," etc., which should have been called "An Act to protect T. B. Catron and such selfish public servants as he, from criticism upon their public records."

But enough! And yet these are only specimens. Catron wields the father or the powerful patron of these and other legislative disgraces, and when the late democratic House repealed the Libel and Change of Venue laws, Catron, as chairman of the judiciary committee of the Council, pocketed the repealing bills and they were never heard of again.

So much for his record as a public official.

As a private citizen dealing with the Territory, he has also a discreditable record, of which his penitentiary brick deal is a specimen.

As a private citizen, dealing with large numbers of private citizens, in particular sections of the Territory, he has likewise a discreditable record, of which his Tierra Amarilla land grab is a splendid specimen.

Upon this record, composed simply of specimens and which can be duplicated by others from his long public career in which he has done nothing for the people but has built up only T. B. Catron and his enormous fortune, can the people afford to elect him to Congress and thus increase his power and the influence to be used in the future, as in the past, for T. B. Catron.

The Call of the Southwest Silver Convention and Mass Meeting of Miners.

EL PASO, TEX., Aug. 15, 1892.

In obedience to the will and instructions of the Southwest Silver Convention and mass meeting of miners held in this city, on the 15th, 16th, and 17th days of December, 1891, your executive and sub-committee, charged with the duty of perpetuating the annual assemblage of the miners of the Southwest in El Paso, do, in virtue of the authority vested in them, announce that the second Annual Southwest Silver convention and mass meeting of miners, will convene in El Paso, Dec. 5, 1893, at 9 A. M.

Miners are urged to be present upon the occasion and to otherwise lend their assistance to a cause that now, if ever, requires friends and advocates.

CHOLERA!

FORTIFY AGAINST IT!

"An Ounce of Preventive is Worth a Pound of Cure."

The near approach of cholera and the danger of its spread, and the probability of its reaching this section, invests the probability with more substantial dread than a scare. How to keep the dread disease from our loved Nation is now the question before the American people. It is of great importance to us that it be barred from the east, but of more importance that it be barred from our own borders. The most important question with every man who has a home is how to bar it from that home. Every man should see that the premises on which his family lives is thoroughly renovated and disinfected for cholera is given up to be a germ disease, and the man who gives opportunity for the germ to burrow there and take root around his home, does so at the peril of not only himself and family, but of the thousands around him. But the work should not stop with the house and premises. Every man should see that his physical system is thoroughly purified of all impurities and germs of disease. The carelessness of one person may bring a scourge upon the entire community. How shall the risk be reduced to the minimum? Certainly by that which will most thoroughly purge the system of disease germs and put it in the most thorough working order. What will do this? Those who know from actual experience say there is no true answer to this question except Dr. Royal Drummond's Remedy. We attempt no deceit. So far as we know, Germicide has never been tried on cholera, but it has cured every kind of disease and is the undisputed conqueror of all germ diseases, and its use is the only way to prevent cholera. It will both prevent and cure cholera. There has been several instances in which children have been brought to this country to die with cholera infantum and a few doses of Germicide, and the children have been cured. The most stubborn bowel diseases have had similar experiences, and Germicide's marvellous success in preventing and curing diseases of this character warrants the position taken above as appeal to every man to keep it in use at once. Germs are undoubtedly the cause of nearly all of our diseases. Destroy the germs and the diseases caused by them are the result of fifteen years study of a regular doctor, and it is the only true Germicide in the world. Price $1.00 per bottle. For sale by Royal Germicide Co., San Francisco, Cal.
